项目背景

Project Background

洮河砚品牌定位为“温润·匠心·雅致·有温度”的非遗文房品牌。 其使命是让千年洮砚的匠心精神与文脉基因在当代生活中焕发新生。
核心主张“一方洮砚，一方山水”强调每一方砚台都是一段山河故事的凝固。

品牌面向四类核心用户：
传统书法爱好者（品质驱动）、
国潮青年（颜值与故事驱动）、
收藏与礼品消费者（文化符号驱动）、
文旅体验者（便携文创驱动）。在产品层面，
品牌构建了“典藏系列—雅集系列—文创系列—体验系列”的四层产品矩阵， 兼顾高端市场与大众文化消费。

在情感层面，
品牌旨在为用户提供一方可以静心、慢下来的“精神栖息地”， 在快节奏的数字时代重新连接人与物、人与自然的诗意关系。

The Tao River Inkstone brand is positioned as a "gentle, artisanal, elegant, and warm" intangible cultural heritage literati brand. Its mission is to revitalize the millennial craftsmanship and cultural DNA of the Tao Inkstone in contemporary life. The core claim, "One Inkstone, One Landscape," emphasizes that each inkstone embodies a story of mountains and rivers.

The brand targets four core user groups: traditional calligraphy enthusiasts (quality-driven), national-trend youth (aesthetics & story-driven), collectors and gift buyers (cultural symbol-driven), and cultural tourists (portable cultural products-driven).

In terms of product, the brand has built a four-tier matrix: "Collection Series – Elegant Gathering Series – Cultural Creative Series – Experience Series," balancing the high-end market with popular cultural consumption. On an emotional level, the brand aims to provide users with a "spiritual sanctuary" where they can calm down and slow down, reconnecting the poetic relationship between people, objects, and nature in a fast-paced digital age.

Project Background

洮砚，全称“洮河绿石砚”，
产于甘肃省甘南藏族自治州卓尼县洮河沿岸的喇嘛崖、水泉湾一带。
其石质细腻如玉，色泽碧绿沉静，
天然水纹如波如云，被称为“洮河水波纹”。
唐代柳宗元《论砚》已有记载，
宋代苏轼、黄庭坚、米芾等文人推崇备至，
苏轼曾赞“洮河石贵双赵璧”。

洮砚制作技艺于 2008 年入选国家级非物质文化遗产。
然而，随着书写习惯的改变，洮砚面临“实用性弱化、设计感滞后”的挑战。
新一代传承人李江平说：“每块石头都藏着一段山水，我们的刀不过是帮它 们把故事说出来。
”洮河砚品牌以此为精神原点，以当代设计语言重新诠释洮砚，让千年文脉
在砚台上继续流淌。

The Tao Inkstone, full name “Tao River Green Stone Inkstone,” is produced along the banks of the Tao River in Zhuoni County, Gannan Tibetan Autonomous Prefecture, Gansu Province, in areas such as Lamasia Cliff and Shui-quan Bay. Its stone is as delicate as jade, with a calm dark green hue and natural water-like ripples known as “Tao River Ripples.” It was recorded in Liu Zongyuan’s “On Inkstones” during the Tang Dynasty, and highly praised by Song Dynasty literati such as Su Shi, Huang Tingjian, and Mi Fu. Su Shi once wrote, “Tao River stone is more precious than a pair of Zhao bi jade discs.” The inkstone-making technique was inscribed as a national intangible cultural heritage in 2008.

当代困境 Contemporary Dilemma

洮砚虽位列中国四大名砚之一， 却在当代面临三重困境：

其一，书写工具的革命使砚台从日常实用器沦为小众收藏品，市场需求锐减；

其二，传统造型与雕刻语言未能与现代审美有效对话，年轻一代“不识洮砚、不感其美”；

其三，品牌建设严重滞后，与端砚、歙砚相比，洮砚缺乏系统性的视觉识别、传播渠道与文创转化能力。

老匠人渐老，新传承者难寻，
非遗技艺在“被保护”与“被使用”之间悬空。

Although the Tao Inkstone ranks among the four great inkstones of China, it faces a triple dilemma today. First, the revolution in writing tools has reduced the inkstone from a daily practical object to a niche collectible, sharply shrinking market demand.

Second, traditional forms and carving languages have failed to engage effectively with modern aesthetics; the younger generation “neither knows the Tao Inkstone nor feels its beauty.”

Third, brand development lags severely behind. Compared with Duan and She inkstones, the Tao Inkstone lacks a systematic visual identity, communication channels, and capacity for cultural product innovation.

Master craftsmen are aging, while new inheritors are hard to find. The intangible cultural heritage hangs in a void between being “preserved” and being “used.”

Logo 设计

logo design

洮砚品牌的标志以“洮”字为核心进行抽象化设计。

左侧的三点水（氵）被转化为三层叠压的砚石切片，

象征洮砚石材的层理结构与手工雕刻的层次感。

右侧的“兆”字则融入蜿蜒流淌的洮河水波线条，笔势如河流般自然伸展。

整个字形既有书法的笔意，

又有图形的凝练。

我们将“洮”字的整体轮廓与砚台的外形相融合：

上沿取规矩形砚的方正线条，下沿用自然形砚的曲线收束。

标志的主色为鸭头绿，内嵌渐变效果，

模拟洮河碧波荡漾的光泽。

这一标志传递了品牌的核心意象：

石与水、人与砚、传承与流动。

The logo of the Tao Inkstone brand takes the character “洮” (Tao) as its core for an abstract design.

The three water drops on the left (氵) are transformed into three layered slices of inkstone stone, symbolizing the stratified structure of Tao stone and the layered sensibility of hand carving.

The right side, “兆,” incorporates the meandering, flowing lines of the Tao River, with brushstrokes extending naturally like a river's course. The entire character retains the essence of calligraphic brushwork while achieving graphic conciseness.

We integrate the overall silhouette of the character “洮” with the shape of an inkstone: the top edge follows the straight lines of a regular-shaped inkstone, while the bottom edge curves like a natural-shaped inkstone.

The primary color is duck-head green, with a gradient effect simulating the shimmering luster of the Tao River.

This logo conveys the brand's core imagery: stone and water, human and inkstone, heritage and flow.

图案设计 logo design

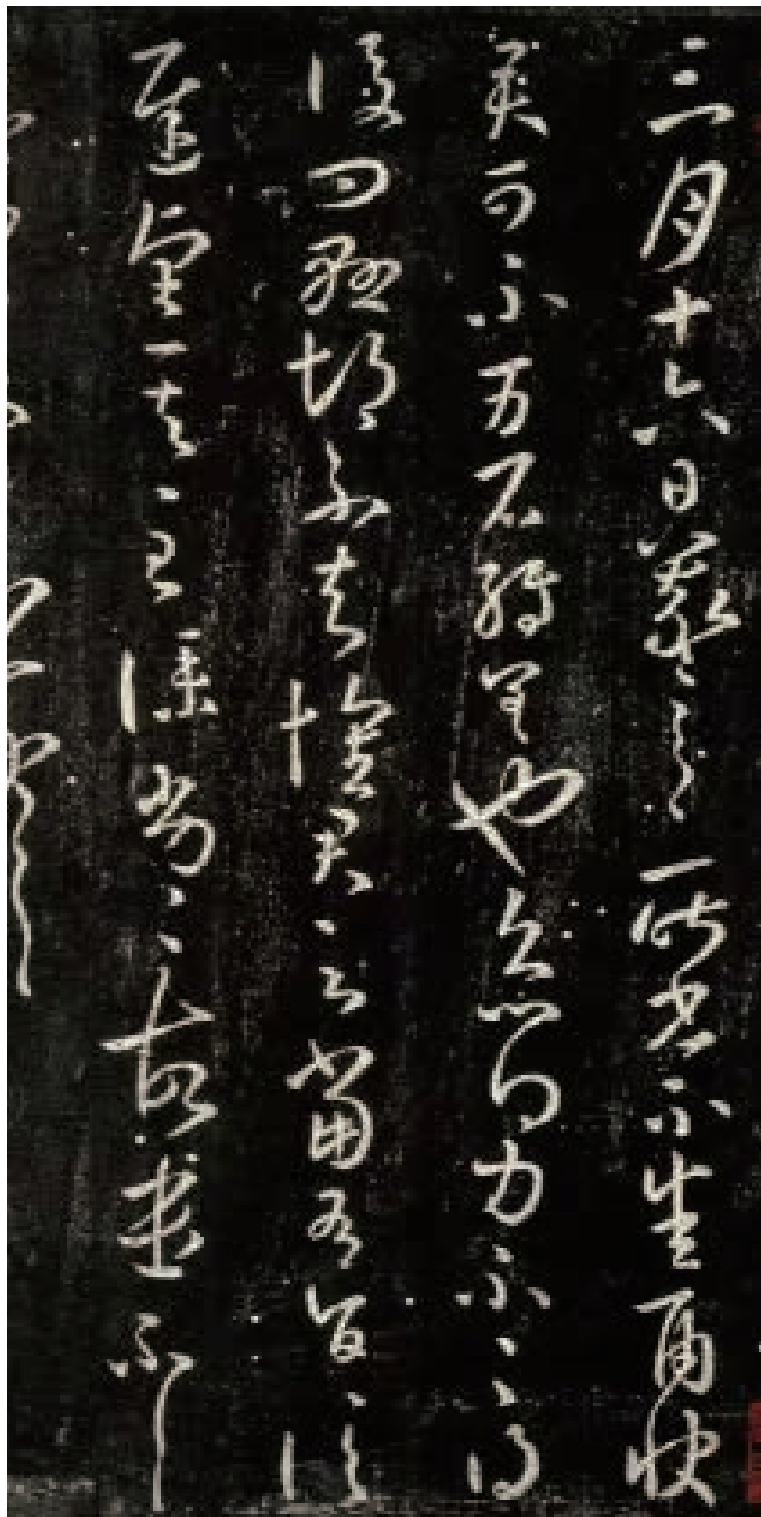

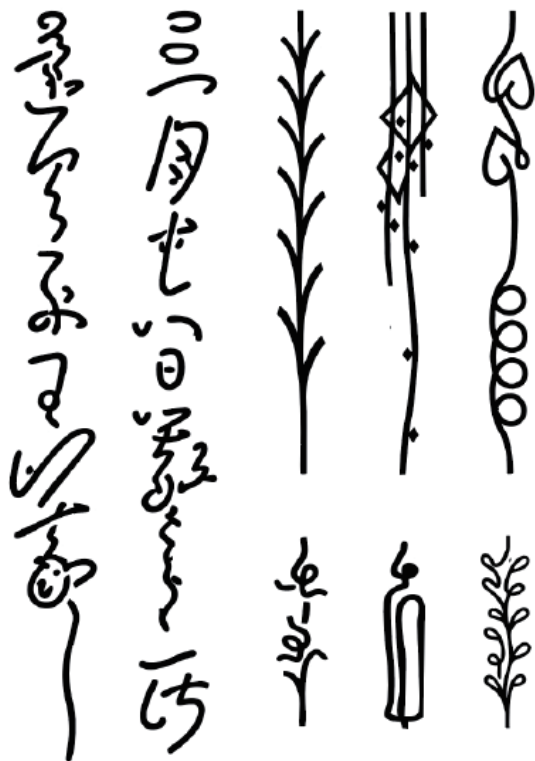

提取洮砚“草书”为视觉语言。

曲线如涟漪，如云雾，如刻刀游走。

构成品牌的核心辅助图形。

.The natural ripple pattern of Tao stone becomes our visual grammar —curves like mist, like a carver's trace.

调研与关键词

Research and Keywords

整个创作过程始于一次深度的“问石”——我们不是先想设计，而是先倾听洮砚本身。

我们进行了以下调研工作：

文献研究：

查阅洮砚历史、制作技艺、文化符号的学术资料。

田野调查：

通过访谈传承人、走访卓尼县洮砚工坊， 了解真实的生产与销售现状。

竞品分析：

对比端砚、歙砚的品牌视觉与包装策略， 找出洮砚的差距与机会。

用户画像：

细分传统书法爱好者、年轻国潮消费者、礼品采购者等不同群体。

在充分理解洮砚的物质性与文化性之后，

我们提炼出品牌关键词：

温润、君子、青绿、娓娓道来。

这些关键词成为后续所有设计决策的“北极星”。

The entire creative process began with a deep “questioning of the stone”
—we did not start with design ideas, but first listened to the Tao inkstone itself.

Our research included:

Literature review: academic materials on Tao inkstone history, craftsmanship, and cultural symbols.

Field study: interviews with artisans and visits to Tao inkstone workshops in Zhuoni to understand real production and sales conditions.

材质与包装打样

Material and packaging sampling

包装设计是品牌与用户的第一次握手。

我们为不同定位的产品设计了不同层级的包装，

但都统一在“温润君子”的调性之下。

砚形书签采用信封式纸袋，

内附故事卡片；

迷你摆件采用透明亚克力盒 + 纸套，内容物一目了然；

旅行便携包装采用天然棉麻布艺袋，印有简笔线条。

Packaging design is the brand's first handshake with the user.

We designed different levels of packaging for differently positioned products, all unified under the “warm gentleman” tone.

完整作品 Complete work

为了让洮砚文化走进更多人的日常生活，
我们设计了一系列轻量级文创衍生品。以洮砚经典轮廓为造型，
采用金属蚀刻工艺，表面印有水波纹。 每枚书签配有一个信封式纸袋，
内附一张小卡片，介绍该造型对应的砚台文化。

To bring Tao inkstone culture into more people's daily lives, we designed a series of lightweight cultural-creative products. They can serve as desk decorations or paperweights. The origin of the stone (e.g., "Lama Cliff Duck-head Green") is engraved on the bottom.

刘涵珂 设计感想

Liu Hanke Design Reflections

本次洮砚非遗黑白展创作中，
我参与设计了 VI 规范、标准字体、海报与展板设计，
同时负责资料梳理、幕后采访拍摄。 以纯粹黑白为载体， 用设计凝练洮砚文脉， 借镜头留存砚台故事， 在版式落地与纪实采编间， 完成传统砚文化的现代表达。

In the creation of this Tao inkstone intangible cultural heritage black-and-white exhibition,
I participated in designing the VI guidelines, standard fonts, posters, and exhibition panels, while also being responsible for organizing materials and filming behind-the-scenes interviews.
Using pure black and white as the medium,
I condensed the cultural context of Tao inkstones through design, preserved the stories of inkstones through the camera, and completed a contemporary expression of traditional inkstone culture between layout implementation and documentary editing.

王伟朝 设计感想

Wang Weichao Design Reflections

本次视觉设计工作让我跳出单纯做图的固有思维。

黑白的视觉形式迫使我深挖洮砚发展脉络，

摒弃花哨设计，

聚焦砚文化本身内核；

直观看见非遗活态传承的现状与困境。

设计是文化对外展示的窗口，

这次实践让我意识到当代设计者的责任，

是用专业能力打通传统文化和大众的距离，

以现代化展陈方式，

实实在在助力非遗落地传播。

This visual design project pushed me to break away from the conventional mindset of simply creating images.

The black-and-white visual form forced me to deeply explore the development context of Taoyan, discard flashy designs, and focus on the core of inkstone culture itself; it allowed me to see firsthand the current situation and challenges of the living heritage inheritance.

Design is a window for cultural display. This practice made me realize that the responsibility of contemporary designers is to use professional skills to bridge the gap between traditional culture and the public, and to genuinely support the implementation and dissemination of intangible cultural heritage through modern exhibition methods.

张雨琦 设计感想

Zhang Yuki Design Reflections

这次视觉设计让我摆脱了‘为做图而做图’的惯性。

极简的黑白表达，

倒逼我深入梳理洮砚的历史肌理，

舍弃浮华的装饰，

直抵砚文化的内核；

也让我真切看到非遗活态传承的荣光与艰难。

设计是文化通往大众的桥梁，

我深感当代设计师的使命，

是用专业语言消解传统与当下的隔阂，

通过现代展陈的转译，

让非遗真正落地、

生根。

This visual design allowed me to break free from the inertia of 'designing for the sake of designing.'

The minimalist black-and-white expression compelled me to thoroughly sort out the historical texture of Tao inkstones, discard flamboyant decorations, and reach the core of inkstone culture; it also made me truly see the glory and difficulties of the living inheritance of intangible cultural heritage.

Design is a bridge that brings culture to the public, and I deeply feel that the mission of contemporary designers is to use professional language to dissolve the gap between tradition and the present, and through the translation of modern exhibitions, allow intangible cultural heritage to truly take root and thrive.

结语与品牌愿景

Conclusion and Brand Vision

“一方洮砚，一方山水。”
愿我们设计的，不只是器物，而是一种能够安放精神的生活方式。

“One inkstone, one landscape.”
May what we design be not just objects, but a dwelling place for the spirit.

致谢

ReflectionsAcknowledgements

每一方洮砚，都藏着一座山河；
每一段设计，都站着许多引路人。

感谢我们的导师，王老师和叶老师，以目光为灯，照亮我们从好奇走向深耕的路。

感谢卓尼县的洮砚传承人，将千年的手艺与故事，毫无保留地交到我们手中。

感谢卓尼县文化馆与所有接受访谈的匠人，是你们让石头有了温度。
感谢彼此——刘涵柯、王伟朝、张雨琦，在无数个深夜的讨论与修改中，我们学会了什么是“设计的意义”。

最后，感谢这片土地。
甘肃的风，洮河的水，喇嘛崖的石，
我们只是替它们，说了一句话。

Within every Tao inkstone lies a landscape; behind every design stand those who light the way.

Thank you to our mentors, whose guidance turned our curiosity into depth.
Thank you to the inkstone masters in Zhuoni, who entrusted us with a craft a thousand years old.

Thank you to Zhuoni Cultural Center and every artisan we spoke with — you gave warmth to stone.

Thank you to each other — Liu Hanke, Wang Weichao, Zhang Yuqi — through countless late nights and revisions, we learned what design truly means.

And finally, thank you to this land.
The winds of Gansu, the waters of the Tao River, the stones of Lama Cliff — we merely borrowed their voice.
